Business Promotion Scheme

The Sechelt Downtown Business Association provides opportunities for merchants to showcase their businesses, encourages residents and tourists to shop in a warm and friendly downtown environment, and provides information, plus education and inspirational seminars, for members.

MISSION STATEMENT: To Champion a Unique, Vibrant and Attractive Downtown.

1. Wages and Administration: The vast majority of the work is accomplished through community support and by our committed and hard-working team of volunteers and our various committees. A small portion of our budget is allocated towards paying a part-time administrator/ambassador to reach out to member businesses and run our office, write grants, update our website, and publish our newsletter.

2. Marketing & Promotional Events: The SDBA organizes and promotes the following projects: Canada Day Parade & Celebrations, Community Christmas Party, Spring Business Fair, Oktoberfest, Around Town Networking Socials, Sechelt New Business Welcome Kit, Sechelt Business Newsletter, Sechelt Village Insider (Coast Reporter Column), Sechelt Village Walking Map.

3. Facility Improvements: The SDBA promotes and advocates for property owner grants to encourage improvements in the areas of public safety, revitalization and beautification (street planters, benches, etc).

4. Community Projects: The SDBA is represented at the Sechelt Chamber of Commerce, and actively encourages participation and cooperation between our various community organizers. In addition, the SDBA supports the Coaster’s Car Club Show & Shine and the Writer’s Festival.

5. Advocacy and Infrastructure: The SDBA is the downtown business community’s voice to government and will review and comment on any development proposals and infrastructure improvements, with consideration to the needs and benefits to our local businesses.
SCHEDULE “C”
