Mental Health Related Occurrences:

An increase in Q3 2025 statistics for mental health related occurrence was anticipated and is reflective of a process change that was implemented at the start of Q2. This process change reflects a more accurate use of the “mental health study field” on Sunshine Coast RCMP files. Statistics now capture repeat calls for service for a small number of chronic clients suffering from mental health issues. These calls often relate to “check well being” and “suspicious person/occurrence” calls for service, which do not necessarily represent a specific mental health crisis call.
